

2014-2015 Studio Artist and Curatorial Residencies

The Garland Gallery is a hub of creative activity, providing Open Studio opportunities for artists and the public to interact.

The Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events and The Joyce Foundation are pleased to present these inaugural Public Studio Artists in Residence:

- Alexandria Eregbu (Fall 2014/Winter 2015)
- Faheem Majeed and Jeremiah Hulsebos-Spofford (Winter/Spring 2015)
- Cheryl Pope (Summer 2015)

Private Studio Artists in Residence : Mahwish Chishty (Winter/Spring 2015); Adebukola Bodunin (Winter/Spring 2015); and Cecil McDonald (Spring/Summer 2015)
Curatorial Fellows: Alison Glenn and Ross Jordan are also at work in and around the Chicago Cultural Center as part of this program.

Artists and curators are awarded a stipend to develop their creative projects and engage with the public. These awards are provided through a generous grant from The Joyce Foundation to support underrepresented artists and curators who demonstrate a strong level of commitment to diversity and community and whose work shows promise or is on the brink of advancement.

For more information, visit chicagoculturalcenter.org or cityofchicago.org/dcace.

	Artists-in-Residence		Curatorial Fellows
Total Awards	6		2
Length of Time	3 months each (2 at a time – one in public studio and one in private studio)		1 year each
Honorarium	$6,000 each		$2,500
Creative Focus	Studio Practice		Curatorial
Space Provided	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ~1,000 square foot semi-private studio • 2nd floor of the Chicago Cultural Center • not generally accessible to the public • large windows • built-in storage racks and shelves • running water • well suited for a variety of media 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ~2,300 square foot public studio • Garland Gallery • first floor of the Chicago Cultural Center • located at the hub of the building • studio serves as a creative vortex of activity both for artists and visitors • well suited for a variety of media 	NA

Contact: Susan A. Friel/ susan.friel@cityofchicago.org / (312)744-1425